The musical score is written for a single instrument, the Basflighorn, in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). It consists of eight numbered sections. Section 1, 'Andante', begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and features a steady eighth-note pattern. Section 2 starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes a fermata. Section 3 continues with a similar eighth-note texture. Section 4, 'Duet Fligh.', is marked piano (p) and features a more complex, rhythmic eighth-note pattern. Section 5 is marked mezzo-piano (mp) and returns to a smoother eighth-note line. Section 6 is marked mezzo-forte (mf) and continues the eighth-note pattern. Section 7, 'Duet Tenori', is marked mezzo-forte (mf) and features a slower, more melodic eighth-note line. Section 8, 'Fligh.', is marked mezzo-piano (mp) and concludes with a final flourish. The score uses various musical notations including slurs, accents, and dynamic markings to guide the performer.
